Empathy Map

Create an empathy map to understand the student's needs, challenges, thoughts, and feelings from different perspectives. This helps the team understand how students experience difficulties while learning, finding study materials, and clearing academic doubts. By understanding the student's point of view, the team can design EduGenie as a personalized and student-friendly AI learning assistant.

SAYS • “I don't understand this topic clearly.” • “I need a simple explanation.” • “I want to clear my doubts quickly.”	THINKS • “Is there an easier way to understand this concept?” • “I need learning materials that match my level.” • “I wish I could get
